Our Contract Department at Your Service FREE

Our Illumination Engineers are experienced men who have made a study of electrical service in the home. They will serve you without cost. Their experience and ability are at your disposal without charge and the fact that they prepare the plan for electrifying your home does not in any way obligate you to contract with us for wiring.

While the engineer is preparing the plan he will give you an estimate of the cost of wiring your home. Any of the firms whose advertisements appear on this page will wire your home according to the plan made by the illumination engineer, and within the sum of his estimate.
